OVERVIEW:

German (Deutsch) is a member of the western group of Germanic languages and is one of the world's major languages. It is the language with the most native speakers in the European Union.

Spoken by more than 120 million people in 38 countries of the world, German is—like English—a pluricentric language with three main centers of usage: Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

Why take this course?

- German is one of the most growing languages and something to easily acquire.
- It is the Gateway to world class higher education.
- Provides ample future opportunities as it is an economic powerhouse.

Training Outcome:-

- The basics of German language and the history
- The usage of different vowels and consonants and their pronunciation
- Conversational part of the language.
- To use simple and complex sentences efficiently.
- Learn to make simple inquiries in German and effectively communicate.
